Fermilab

STEM
SCIENCE • TECHNOLOGY • ENGINEERING • MATH

Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics Career Expo for High School Students

Wednesday, April 20, 2016

5:30–8:30 PM • Fermilab's Wilson Hall, Batavia

Come and join science, mathematics, engineering, and technology experts from a wide variety of careers.
• Ask experts career questions • Ask about educational pathways leading to specific careers
• Discuss career fields with professional association representatives
• Attend panel discussions on career areas

Career representatives may include:

Acoustics Engineer
Actuary
Analytical Chemist
Astrophysicist
Biologist
Biotechnologist
Chemical Engineer
Chemist
Civil Engineer
Electrical Engineer
Environmental Scientist
Food Scientist
Forensic Scientist
Geologist
Mechanical Engineer
Nuclear Engineer
Optical Engineer
Physicist
Software Engineer
Statistician
and more...

http://ed.fnal.gov/programs/careerfair/

The event is free; no registration is required. Parking is free and available on the west side of Wilson Hall. Overflow parking is available at the Lederman Science Center. Enter Wilson Hall on the ground or first floor.

The STEM Career Expo is a cooperative effort of Kane and DuPage County schools, hosted by Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory.